
13TH CENTURY.

No Swindlehurst records found so far but presumably if our first named fore father was Adam of c1190:

1200-1260: Adam's(1) and/or children alive.

1220-1280: Adam(1) children's children alive.

1280-1299: Adam(2 -c1332) and Nicholas's(1 - c1335) grandparents parents born?
=====

14TH CENTURY.

1300-1310: Adam(2) and Nicholas's(1) parents born? [same or different parents]

Family History book suggests William de Swynhillhurst c1300 as forefather of:

1332: [of working age] Adam(2) de [from/of] Swynhillhurst

1335: [of working age] Nicholas(1) Swynhillhurst.

1332: Swynhillhurst, 'Farm around Browsholme'. Ref. wood fencing boundary work of 'Laythegryme Park' and 'New Launde, close to the Knotts' ['name of a farm'].

1335: Above work and place included making of a gate on the north side of Leagrim Park [Royal Hunting Park] giving rise to place named Park Gate.

Named are: 1332: Adam de [from/of] Swynhillhurst. 1335: Nicholas Swynhillhurst.

1346: Adam Swinglehurst dies in London of the Plague. This is probably the above 1341 Adam de Swinelhurste (note the change to our G spelling) One or more of those mentioned above may have gone to London with him - possibly summoned by the Royals due to our work on the royal parks and our building skills reputation (which may have included work on Burscough Priory, Clitheroe Castle and the earliest wooden Halls of Lathom and Browsholme. Adam made a Will which still survives somewhere in London archives - perhaps the Metropolitan or Kew. This could reveal more about our earliest family in Bowland - its ancestors and descendants. It is possible our whole family moved to London at this time with one or more returning to Bowland by the 15th Century. History records that many people across England went to London in this period to help build the city.
