ANOTHER CHILD DROWNED, _ An inquest was held in this town, on Thursday, before R.Palmer Esq., coroner, on view of the body of Lydia Swindlehurst, aged 3 years, daughter of James Swindlehurst, Back Bridge-street, weaver. It appeared that the deceased had gone to school on Tuesday afternoon, and in returning at about five o'clock, in company with other children, had passed through the railings to the lodge of water in Rodgett's factory, where, by some means, she fell in. The alarm was given by a little girl of the same age, and the lodge was immediately dragged, but it was a quarter of an hour before the body of the deceased was pulled out. She was then quite dead. A verdict was returned of "Accidental Death."

Married by: Charles Wagstaff, Curate

Dy: William and Rosanna Swindlehurst are in Preston in 1841 but the surname is wrongly transcribed on Ancestry as Heherrst! There is a sort of white mark over part of the name so I can see why this might have happened but you can zoom in and clearly see that it's William Swindlehurst with Rosanna (spelt Rosannah) and their 2 eldest children.

William's occupation is given as machine maker. Also in the household are John Heherrst aged 25 who. like William, is a machine maker. Also a Sarah Herherrst aged 20 who could be either John's wife (mostly likely) or the sister of John and William (no birth record fits for that scenario). See the possible marriage ref of John and Sarah below. The age of Sarah is given as 20 on the 1841 census but the 1841 is notoriously inaccurate! William's age of 25 in 1841 fits with the birth details from Slaidburn.

Dy: Solina b 1843 Guelph. The only ref to Solina (it doesn't look like an "e" so not Selina) is in the 1861 census. She's aged 18 and a moulder. I cannot find any other ref for her. Barry lists all the others marriages but nothing about Solina

3. John Swindlehurst. Born about 1843 Canada
[Married Mary Fenwick c1870]

4. Susan Alice Swindlehurst. Birth about 1845, died about 1912
