Ron: Preston gravestone inscription:

In loving Memory of William Swindlehurst who departed this life July 22nd 1882 aged 61 years (i.e. born 1821) Also of Ann Swindlehurst the beloved wife of the above who departed this life Sept ? 1889 aged 66 years (i.e. b 1823) Jesus the name that calms our fears that bids our sorrows cease also of John Swindlehurst Son Of the above who died Nov 28th 1896 (or could have been 1890) aged 37 years. (i.e. born 1859 or 1853) also Hannah daughter.....

Ron's Observation: Was Ann married to one of Sarah Jane's brothers and was this John who died in 1890/96 and is buried in the William of PE Island grave? John on grave aged 37 fits with John 1853 above, father William and mother Ann

Conclusions. Very likely that the husband of Ann of Cockermouth was John Swindlehurst, brother of Sarah Jane, with their parents being William born <1821> (Canada?) and wife Ann of Preston. William had a possible brother Robert born <1820> (Canada?), and a possible second brother Edward (of Silver Street) born Preston <1828-31>. If all this true, then the parents of these 3 brothers seem to have returned to England between 1821-1828/31 [Check ship passenger lists, Canadian records/websites etc].

Henry was the British Consul in Valpariso, Chile, Owner of an 8 acre Farm, Magistrate, 'DL' (not known what this stands for at present), Iron Merchant and manufacturer of gun powder. He wrote the 'Silver Mines' book about his American travels which included Peru, Chile & New York - details with Dy. Chris found more details of Henry's Gunpowder development and use in the book 'The Gunpowder Mills of Cumbria' by Ian Taylor - ISBN 0952302888. It includes an account of Henry's experiments 1865 in the presence of future King Edward V11. Chris also found his published Obituary 1895 with much detail about his life.

From the Amazon website:

Edmund Swinglehurst was born in Chile, but was educated and lived most of his life in Britain. He studied art in Paris for several years, working in the studio of the artist Fernand Leger and in the Ecole des Beaux Arts. He travelled widely in Europe and the Americas and up until his death in 2005 he worked as a freelance writer and painter. He has been an independent school headmaster, an advertising executive and a Public Relations manager for Thomas Cook. He now works as a freelance writer.

Janice Anderson has written books on a number of subjects, including travel, cinema, art and social history. She lives in Marlow, Buckinghamshire. Her late husband, Edmund Swinglehurst, was a headmaster, an advertising executive and a representative for Thomas Cook Travel. He was the author of over twenty books. Peter Sissons has worked for ITN, Channel Four and, since 1989, the BBC. Currently a regular presenter on BBC News 24, he has become one of the best-known faces on British TV. He lives in Kent.

From Roy after an e-mail from descendant Maddy: [Maddy] tells me that the author Edmund Swinglehurst changed his name to Swinglehurst. His father was known as Jappie Jones as he was half Japanese. [Maddy] knew Edmund as Uncle Edmund. He was an old family friend.

Kenneth Henry Jones Swinglehurst. Birth 14 Jan 1926 Valparaiso, Chile. Immigration: 1961 Rio de Janeiro, Brazil.

Parents: Eduardo Jones & Lydia Swinglehurst (birthplace Valparaiso, Chile) [Hays 1844]

Henry senior died in Valparaiso and the inscription on his gravestone reads:

'This was Swinglehurst
Whose kingdom was his own
And now his earthly bubble's burst
He lies beneath this stone
Where freed from every mundane strife
He mingles with the sod
Who ne'er did titivate his life
To try and hoodwink God'

Jane Swinglehurst. Burial 24 Aug 1883. Heversham, Westmoreland.

Age: 62. Birth Date: 1821

From a Kendal website: In the mid 19th century the demand for gunpowder led to the Stricklands from Sizergh and the Wakefields from Sedgwick supporting the development of a gunpowder mill using the water power which was readily available - 'but don't scare my salmon', said one. By 1880 Mr Swinglehurst, who lived at Hincaster House, had control of the gunpowder works, and became a local squire figure. His house had been gentrified earlier in the century by 'cladding' the rough walls with dressed limestone. Mr Swinglehurst built a small mission room onto one of the cottages on the green where Sunday school was held until the 1940s. Even in the 1920s these gunpowder works drew labour from the village. Later the works were moved to a bigger site at Gatebeck, and later still ICI took them all over. Only worn down mill race walls remain.

Pickstone, Fisher and Read were surnames of friends of Henry. 'Self' probably a recording error for his mother 'Jelph'. Addison was the maiden name of Henry's Grandmother

Ch: Henry married Jane Hays(Heyes), May 15, 1844 Bolton Parish Church, Bolton, Lancashire.

Henry died Hincaster House 9th January 1895. He and wife Jane sailed round Cape Horn with 3 children in 1855 returning in 1859 with another 2. The voyage included visiting the coast of Peru. The children include: Joseph Addison Swinglehurst, Juanita Read Swinglehurst, Jemima Self Swinglehurst, Mary Pickstone Swinglehurst.

Dy: Edward and Lydia lived in Preston, Appleby then at Hincaster House near Heversham.

They had a son called Henry born about 1821 in Appleby.

Henry married Jane (maiden name not yet found) and they lived also in Hincaster House but they also travelled.

They had at least 5 children born in Manchester, Valpariso in Chile and Egypt!

in 1871 he was a "Chilean Merchant and owner of ?? farm of 8 acres".

In 1881 he was "Magistrate, Merchant and manufacturer of gun powder"!!

Also in 1881 his nephew Edward lived with the family and was listed as a gun powder manufacturer.

In 1891 he is listed as "Gun powder manufacturer in England. JP. DL. Iron Merchant, Chile"

Don't know (yet) what the DL stands for.

Henry died 9 Jan 1895 Hincaster House

Mother Ann (b. 1826) died 27th December 1908 aged 82
Brother John Swindlehurst Died Nov 27th 1895. Aged 37 Years

Ron: Today I visited Preston cemetery to look at the grave bought by George in 1889. I should have been sooner!

The transcription reads:

In loving memory of George Swindlehurst who died April 30th 1897 aged 81 years, also Ann his beloved wife who died December 27 1908, aged 82 year [born abt 1826], also if John their son who died November 27th 1895 aged 37 years also of Ann their daughter who died December 21st 1916 aged 65 years, also of Esther Sarah Norris, daughter of the above who died September 18th 1922, aged 73 years, also of Mary Swindlehurst, daughter of the above who died January 4th 1923 aged 71 years. Also of James Swindlehurst who died November 23rd 1949 aged 83 years.

So these look like the ones that appear in the censuses, but is this Ann called Baxendale?

Turning to Ann Baxendale of Farington, I had a look at the entry for Leyland

Leyland St Andrew parish church

July 27 1823 Ann dau of Richard and Elizabeth Baxendale Cuerdon cotton spinner. Given that her father Richard is a Cotton Spinner in 1823 it seems very unlikely that he was a farmer in 1846 when his daughter Ann married George.

1847: WILLIAM SWINDLEHURST & ELIZABETH EVES

[William son of Thomas Swindlehurst & Sarah Nelson married 6 Jan 1808 Saint Peter, Bolton Le Moors, Lancs.]
[From Paul: Elizabeth born about 1826 shown in 1841 as living in St Ignatius Sq., Preston]

William & Elizabeth married 1847 Preston. (Found by Paul)

Also found by Paul, children:

- 1, Thomas Lamartine Yates Sw.- b. Preston 1849, d.1929
[Thomas Lamartine Swindlehurst 1848]
[Married Fanny Roberts 1881 Lambeth and Rose Emma Janau 1900 Epsom]
Both marriages found by Keith Atkinson

Also from Keith: Paul Lamartine Yates is really a Swindlehurst, (son of Thomas Lamartine Swindlehurst - who became Thomas Lamartine Yates - and Rose Lamartine Yates (a famous suffragette) See Janau family from Keith 1900

2. James Nelson Swindlehurst. Birth 1850 Preston d.1902 (In Lambeth 1901)
[Married Elizabeth Palmer 1885 St Saviour, London] May have previously married another Elizabeth

Keith:

1901 Census goes some way to confirming that this is the correct James N as he and his wife Elizabeth are now living with his sister-in-law Agnes (Charles' wife) and nephew Charles. Agnes is now shown as a widow but most interestingly both Agnes and Charles are now Swindlehursts again!

3. William Swindlehurst. Birth 1854 Preston
[Married Mary Hannah Grant 1875 Wandsworth]
4. Charles Garibaldi Swindlehurst. Birth 1860 Wandsworth
[Married Agnes Hopkins 1887 St Saviour, London]
5. Arthur Lincoln Swindlehurst. Birth Sep 1865 Lambeth
[Death Dec 1865 Lambeth]

Keith: My research shows that only one of William's sons kept his Swindlehurst name (James). Maybe this was because he was already married and had a young daughter.

The 1881 Census shows their new names (About 2½ years after William left prison):

William and his wife Elizabeth:

Living at 2 Broad Street, Brighton. They are shown as lodgers and "Serving upon Funded Property"

Son: Thomas (Lamartine Yates) – Living with his brother William

Son: James Nelson Swindlehurst (kept surname) – Living at 81 St Pauls Road, Newington with Wife Elizabeth and daughter Minnie

Occupation: Professed Cook

Son: William (Yates) – Living at 203 Clapham Road, Lambeth with his wife Mary Hannah (nee Grant), son William Donald Grant Yates, his brother Thomas (Lamartine Yates) and a general servant Mary Ann Scanlon

Occupation: Public Writer

Son: Charles Garibaldi (Yates) – Living as a boarder at 28 Royal Road, Newington

Occupation: Solicitors Managing Clerk

As it was a bit tenuous to confirm this as the correct Charles Yates, it is confirmed by the 1891 census where he is living with his, now widowed, mother, his wife Agnes and their son Charlie at 24 Arthur Road, Lambeth.

Ron: Mary Alice Swindlehurst (1863-

Mary Alice was baptised in St. John's church Preston on the 24th May 1863 and on the 1871 census she appears as a 7 year old Scholar at 18 River Street and born in Preston. This indicates that the family came to Preston from Barton between 1859 and 1863.

In 1881 she was a 17-year-old Cotton Weaver living at 18 River Street.

While searching the 1922 Electoral Register for Park Ward, Preston for Lillian Swindlehurst (the daughter of Elizabeth Ellen Swindlehurst) when she would have reached 21 years of age, I came across Mary Alice. Mary Alice lived with her husband John William Simmons at 24 St. Christopher's Road, just off St. George's Road, Preston. [Mary & John William Simmons married 1905 Preston]

Mary mother of William James Swindlehurst. ['Illegitimate'] Christening; 3 Apr 1884 Christ Church, Preston, Lancs. William James Swindlehurst Age 0 Death 1884 Preston. Mary married John William Simmons. Mary Alice could have married twice. One may be: Mary Alice SWINDLEHURST Married Preston 1887 Lancsh. Sp: George William COPELAND]
[A marriage record found since confirms Mary married George Copeland 1887]

Ron: I did wonder what brought a girl from Staffordshire to Bleasdale Tower. The 1851 census shows William Garnett barrister and JP there. At the Lodge were Hannah Mather aged 63 Lodge keeper Of Oldham and her children Mary mather 25 Launderess born hanbury staffs and John Mather aged 23 labourer of Hanbury... the children were baptised in Marchington staffs which is about 8 miles from Sandon.

Ron: I have attached a strip (to keep the size down) from the marriage certificate of William Swindlehurst and Elizabeth Weavall. I wonder what you make of the second witness? My best guess is Lucy Hamfrath!!

With update from Ron: my new best guess is Mary Thompson. One of the servants in the 1851 census for Bleasdale Tower was Mary Thomson aged 21 born in Bentham Westmorland.

Reference previous from Ron:

From a copy of the marriage certificate of William Swindlehurst and Elizabeth Weavell, in Aug 8 1849 her father was given as Samual and she was given as 21 years of age. The marriage was witness by Robert Swindlehurst (who is he father, brother?) and ? as yet unreadable.

This would give her dob as 1828. Later censuses say she was born in Sandon staffs.

The nearest I have for her is 30 Dec 1827 Elizabeth dau of Samual and Sarah WEAVER of Sandon labourer.

I did wonder what brought a girl from Staffordshire to Bleasdale Tower. The 1851 census shows William Garnett barrister and JP there. At the Lodge were Hannah Mather aged 63 Lodge keeper Of Oldham and her children Mary mather 25 Launderess born hanbury staffs and John Mather aged 23 labourer of Hanbury.

If you trace these via the IGI you can find the children were baptised in Marchington staffs which is about 8 miles from Sandon

So the theory goes that Mr Garnett asked the lodge keeper if he new any good servants and he recommended Elizabeth Weavell! How about that for a flight of fancy. I was hoping to show that Hannah was a Weaver too but as she was born in Oldham it rather spoils it. I can't ascertain her maiden name.

William Swindlehurst (Gillian's g g grandfather). Baptised 30th May 1813 St. Eadmer's Church, Bleasdale, Lancsh.

Ron: William Swindlehurst (1813-1882)

My wife's g g grandfather, William Swindlehurst was baptised at St. Eadmer's church in Bleasdale on the 30th May 1813.²

His parents were given as William and Nancy Swinglehurst a Farmer of Goosnargh.

His whereabouts in 1841 have not been discovered. He was not with the rest of the family at Nateby.

William was married to Elizabeth Weavell at St. Eadmer's church (Admarsh Chapel) on August 8th 1849. He was a farmer at Sandham Mill and she was a Houseservant at Bleasdale Tower. She was 21 years old and born in Sandon, Staffordshire. Her father was called Samual, a servant.

Bleasdale Tower

The 1851 census sees William safely ensconced at Sandham Mill, Barnacre with his wife and baby son William.

Sandholme/Sandham Mill, Barnacre

By 1861 he has moved with his family to Hill Top farm, Barton and farmed 39 acres. Three more children were born here, Sarah Ann (my wife's g grandmother), James and Catherine.⁴

Hill Top farm, Barton

In 1871 the family lived at 18 River Street, Preston where he was a 51-year-old Dairyman. They have one more child here, Mary A aged 7.⁵

William died aged 69 years on the 9th October 1882 and was buried in Preston cemetery. (ref. W 878 CE)

1851: MARIA _U_E SWINDLEHURST & ??

[Maria daughter of ?]

Maria _u_e Swindlehurst. Marriage Sep 1851 Lancaster. Also: Thomas Hall, John Nicholson

Lizzie MacGregor, Assistant Librarian at the Scottish Poetry Library, tel (Edinburgh) 0131 557 2876, <http://www.spl.org.uk> www.spl.org.uk has sent us the following.

The author of 'Dashes at Iniquity' was John Anderson, born around 1820, so the piece is definitely well out of copyright, and you will be free to reproduce it. We have a little bit about him in the multi-volume 19th century anthology Modern Scottish Poets.

Mr. Anderson wrote much in prose and verse, and published a series of political sketches in verse, entitled 'Dashes at Iniquity, by Luke, the Labourer'.

"Luke the Labourer" is the title of a play by John Baldwin Buckstone, an English playwright. It does seem to me slightly more likely that a Scottish poet might send something protesting about a Scottish landowner to a Scottish newspaper, with (now that you have sent me the text of it), quite a bit of knowledge about the setting of the Duke's new palace at Hamilton, and some distinctly Scottish sentiment in the last verse? Maybe he used the nom-de-plume of 'Luke the Labourer' because the play was so well-known?

This poem was written some time in the 1850s, and was printed in the Glasgow Sentinel, whence it has been copied.

by Luke the Laborer

(This poem was written by John Baldwin Buckstone, some time in the 1850s, and was printed in the Glasgow Sentinel, whence it has been copied.)

BENEVOLENCE. His Grace the Duke of Hamilton has just caused to be distributed the usual donation, from the palace, of butcher-meat and oat-meal, to upwards of 500 individuals and heads of families in the town of Hamilton - Glasgow paper.

God pity the poor! and preserve the good Duke,
Who sent back the crumbs from the loaves which he took
From hedgers and ditchers, those ignorant clods,
Whose spoil gilds the walls of his royal abodes.
Our great Exhibition will show to the earth
The genius of labor as well as its worth;
But nothing will stand in that emporium grand,
That rank can say came from its profligate hand.

God pity the poor! who, like skeletons, pine
By the side of hid Grace, full of dainties and wine,
All drawn from the toilers upon his estate -
You may reckon him mean, but certainly not blate.
Every floweret, they say, has its own drop of dew,
Of station this precept has never been true:
Every pulse of its heart is sustained in its glow
By sweat from the laborer's sorrowful brow.

God pity the poor! let the poor thank the Peer,
Whose oat-meal advertisement reads rather queer;
The poor folk are feasted on what is their own,
And the Duke claims the praise for the charity done.
Admiration in bushels may fall on his head,
When he gives the down-trodden a holiday fees;
How few take the trouble an hour to inquire
Why workmen want dinner, or clothing, or fire!

Industrious poor! What a puzzle to me
To make those two jarring fag-ends well agree!
Industrious poor! If they waste what they gain,
They are not industrious, my doctrine is plain.
Industrious poor! But they really are poor -
Then some Swindlehurst brought the curse to the door;
The provident man, if no knave interfere,
Will never want freedom, nor comfort, nor cheer.

Benevolence! small is the Bedlamite's sense,
Who wants us to swallow that stark insolence;
Benevolence! stealing your log, if we must,
And giving the owner the precious saw-dust!
Benevolence! nothing on earth can surpass
This Hamilton kindness for baseness and brass;
The weakest must it feel it a glaring misdeed
To pilfer their acres, and pay them with bread!

Benevolence! Well, it is much, to be sure,
To see his Grace drawing so close to the poor;
What a lesson for thousands in times that are by,
Had Dukes kept their fingers more out of the pie!
Position is something, like Joseph's one sheaf,
All else must bend down to the dust in their grief;
Swallow up! swallow up! it proclaims night and day,
Swallow up! swallow every thing comes in the way!

The patches of ground that for ages have stood,
To do the poor peasants a world of good,
By the rim of the river, a few paces square,
With modern improvements, no longer are there.
Every acre Mr Adam has left to bear fruit
Belongs to the palace, or abbey, no doubt;
And millions that Heaven ordained for the soil,
Have not an inch left for existence the while!

Down, down with the rabble - yes, farther down still -
Drive, drive them from woodland, and valley, and hill;
Shut, shut them all out from the summer and spring,
They must not smell flowers, nor hear warblers sing.
The sunshine is sweet, and the blossoms are fair,
But rank must possess these delights every where;
Give poor people cellars, where light will not come,
To show them the horrors that tenant their home!

Not cart-loads of meal, no, nor thousands of loaves,
Shall bribe me to puff up a custom I loathe;
If the gift has been pilfered, I'll spit on the boon,
And call the vile donor a villainous loon!
Give back our inheritance - give us our land -
And elbow-room for the bee-hive to stand;
The Labor will rise on its pinions of power,
And wither'd stems bloom like a jessamine flower.

Petitions for bread let us strongly despise,
A mendicant's wail is not Scottish nor wise;
Let us seek independence in trouble and strife -
That peril of manhood - that jewel of life.
As a mate for our Thistle - our Thistle so grand -
This virtue must bloom in our dear father-land;
Till every lone nook shall partake of its cheer,
And pauper relief, like a curse, disappear.
