[Update from Gary Mar 2013: She had twin sons Ralph and Robert who were adopted by Mr & Mrs Craig in 1899. They renamed the sons Ray & Roy]

Gary (Jg): Re Helen/Ellen/(Nellie?)

The only references near to Helen/Ellen have been those regarding Nellie Swindlehurst.
As you will be aware, Nellie had twin sons, Ralph and Robert, in 1898, presumably illegitimate.

Ralph and Robert Swindlehurst
Birth 9 Jun 1898 Manchester, Hillsborough, New Hampshire, United States
Mother's Name: Nellie Swindlehurst
Collection: New Hampshire Birth Records, Early to 1900

The next references that I found was the 1900 US Census, where she is living in a 'Mercy Home/Hospital ' with 19 other young ladies.

Finally, registration of her death, only 9 days after the Census.

Nellie Swindlehurst. Female. Death 24 Jun 1900 Manchester, Hillsborough, New Hampshire
Age: 19. Birth Date: 1881
Collection: New Hampshire Deaths and Burials, 1784-1949

Don't know what happened to the boys.

I suspect that one of two things happened here (if this is Helen). Either she ran away when she realised that she was pregnant, or her brothers abandoned her. I do rather hope it was the former.

8. Mary Jane Swindlehurst. Birth 1882 (Great Harwood)

Jg: Mary Jane is recorded as living with Courtland and Margaret in 1901.

In 1911 she is in Lodgings (assuming I've found the right lass!)

I think that she married soon after that, but you wouldn't believe how many Mary Jane Swindlehursts got married in that 4 year period after the Census! Which one was her; was one her? I know not.

Gary: Do you, or any of your contacts have any knowledge of the familial line of the Mary Jane Swindlehurst that died in Jan 1967 in Winwick Hospital (Asylum)? [Mary J died 1967 Newton aged 84 - born about 1883] Mary Jane Swindlehurst. Birth 1882 Blackburn [Lord 1861]

She was the right age at death to be the sister of my great grandfather, but I am by no means certain that that link is correct.

I am pretty sure that I've managed to trace MY Mary Jane to 1931; still unmarried at 49 years of age. But, there is a gap between the censuses of 1901 and 1911 which brings an element of uncertainty. The circumstantial evidence suggests that the MJS with Courtland in 1901 and the MJS in digs in 1911 are one and the same, but.....? [? Mary J Swindlehurst married Harry Crutchley 1946 Blackburn]

Jg: Robert died in 1888 in Rishton; Mary Ann died in 1891 in Burnley

Mary Ann Swindlehurst. Death 1891 Burnley aged 48

Gary (Jg):

Both Courtland and Robert were born in Cohoes, Albany Co, NY, USA. (I have in my possession a Certificate to that effect, signed by Mary Ann, their mother).

Whilst in Cohoes, Albany, NY, Robert and Mary Ann had 2 more sons, Courtland (1873) and Robert (1874 – and my g-grandfather). Sometime between then and 1879, they returned to Accrington, where 3 more children were born – Arthur, Helen/Ellen (Nellie?) and Mary Jane. Robert died in 1887, Mary Ann in 1891, and the family went its various ways. In 1893, Christopher took Arthur and Helen to Boston, USA, Courtland married (and presumably took responsibility for Mary Jane, she's with them on 1901 census) and Robert joined the army.

I recall my grandfather telling me that his G-F (Robert) had gone to the USA with his brother and their families, and that they'd had a falling out and Robert brought his family back to England. That Robert is not on the 1871 Census, whilst Mary Ann and Christopher are, suggests that this was not entirely true!

It may be worth noting that Christopher, his brother, is also missing from the 1871 Census along with his wife, Ann. It may be that Robert went to USA with Chris and Ann. When, I don't know, as I have been unable to find any record of Robert entering USA. Wife and son, Yes! Him. No

Just like Robert, Chris reappears on UK Census in 1881, as a Widower. I have not been able to find a record of Ann's death. Chris's sister, Elizabeth Bradley and children are recorded as living with him at this time.

In 1893, when the family split up after Mary Ann's death, Robert joined the Army. He too appears to have told lies, both about his age, and about his place of birth. He joined the "Loyal North Lancs Reg't", a militia outfit, and he then transferred, in 1894, to the "East Lancs Reg't", a regular outfit.

In 1896, he 'bought' himself out of the Army (not before having served in Gibraltar!). According to my Grandfather, he was loaned the money for this by Courtland. Courtland subsequently did the dirty on him, and demanded repayment much, much sooner than had been agreed. Robert, therefore, worked all hours that God sent in order to repay Courtland, contracted Pneumonia and died in 1907, leaving his wife with a 5 year old son and babe in arms.

(This was recounted with great bitterness, of course, but my Grandfather only ever heard the tale from his mother!!

So, who knows?)

RE: ROBERT

BOTH COURTLAND AND ROBERT WERE BORN IN COHOES, ALBANY Co, NY, USA. (I HAVE IN MY POSSESSION A CERTIFICATE TO THAT EFFECT, SIGNED BY MARY ANN, THEIR MOTHER).

IN 1893, WHEN THE FAMILY SPLIT UP AFTER MARY ANN'S DEATH, ROBERT JOINED THE ARMY. HE TOO APPEARS TO HAVE TOLD LIES, BOTH ABOUT HIS AGE, AND ABOUT HIS PLACE OF BIRTH. HE JOINED THE "LOYAL NORTH LANCS REG'T", A MILITIA OUTFIT, AND HE THEN TRANSFERRED, IN 1894, TO THE "EAST LANCS REG'T", A REGULAR OUTFIT.

IN 1896, HE 'BOUGHT' HIMSELF OUT OF THE ARMY (NOT BEFORE HAVING SERVED IN GIBRALTAR!). ACCORDING TO MY GRANDFATHER, HE WAS LOANED THE MONEY FOR THIS BY COURTLAND. COURTLAND SUBSEQUENTLY DID THE DIRTY ON HIM, AND DEMANDED REPAYMENT MUCH, MUCH SOONER THAN HAD BEEN AGREED.

ROBERT, THEREFORE, WORKED ALL HOURS THAT GOD SENT IN ORDER TO REPAY COURTLAND, CONTRACTED PNEUMONIA, AND DIED IN 1907, LEAVING HIS WIFE WITH A 5 YEAR OLD SON AND A BABE IN ARMS.

( THIS WAS RECOUNTED WITH GREAT BITTERNESS, OF COURSE, BUT MY GRANDFATHER ONLY EVER HEARD THE TALE FROM HIS MOTHER!! SO, WHO KNOWS?)

ROBERT MARRIED ADA MOORE IN 1898 AT KEIGHLEY REGISTER OFFICE. THEY HAD THE FOLLOWING OFFSPRING:

WALTER, b 1899, IN BINGLEY, d 1901, ALSO IN BINGLEY
ARTHUR, b 1902 IN BINGLEY, d 1979, AT AIREDALE GENERAL HOSP. (MY GRANDFATHER)
ROBERT, b 1907 IN BINGLEY, d 1983 IN BRADFORD

ADA DIED IN 1950 IN BINGLEY.

SUBSEQUENT GENERATIONS:

ARTHUR MARRIED MARY WHITAKER IN JUNE 1927 IN BINGLEY; THEY HAD 1 CHILD:

STANLEY, b 1928, IN BINGLEY.

AFTER POST-WAR SERVICE AS RAF GROUND CREW, DAD EMIGRATED TO AUSTRALIA, DECIDED THAT HE DIDN'T LIKE IT, AND CAME HOME!

HE MARRIED JOAN MORRIS IN FEB 1952 IN WILSDEN, AND HAD THE FOLLOWING:

JOHN GARY, b AUG 1952 (PREMATURE!) IN BRADFORD (er... ME!)
CHRISTINE, b 1957, IN SHIPLEY, d 2010, IN BINGLEY (SUDDENLY AND UNEXPECTEDLY)

I MARRIED DENISE POTTS IN 1978 IN NEWCASTLE UPON TYNE AND WE HAD 2 DAUGHTERS:

CAROLINE MARY, b 1981, IN NEWCASTLE
REBECCA JANE, b 1985, IN NEWCASTLE

IN 2007, CAROLINE MARRIED ANTHONY PETER HOUSE AND IN 2009 THEY HAD A DAUGHTER, DANIELLE CAITLYN. SHE IS PRESENTLY EXPECTING A SECOND SPROG!

THAT'S IT. I MAY BE ABLE TO SUPPLY A FEW ADD IN DETAILS HERE AND THERE, BUT ESSENTIALLY, THIS IS IT!

6. Arthur Swindlehurst. Born 25 May 1878. Baptism 6 Jun 1878 St James, Accrington, Lancs.
Abode: 81 Blackburn Road. Father's Occupation: Draper
[Gary: Arthur died at Vimy Ridge 1916. WW1 - killed in action]

Gary (Jg): My gg-grandfather's elder brother, William, emigrated to Canada, and it is their son Arthur (b Accr. 1878) who died at Vimy Ridge in 1916. He was initially posted as missing in action before being confirmed KIA. His brother Fred – usually documented as Rev Fred – also joined the Canadian army, in 1915, as a stretcher bearer, was gassed on the Somme and commissioned in the field for carrying on his duties! He survived the war and is mentioned in several crossings of the US/Canada border through the 1920's.

William and Ellen seem to have led an eventful life together!?

On the 1871 Census, they have 2 sons and 2 'adopted' daughters; In 1881, they have 4 sons and the young ladies are now 'Boarders'!

Their names, etc.

Albert, b 1867, Accrington

Edwin, b 1869, Haslingden

Arthur, b 1878, Accrington

Fred, b 1879, Accrington

Jane Grimshaw, b 1852, Church, Lancs

Mary Ellen Leeds, b 1861, Liverpool

NB: Through the various Censuses, both UK and Canada, names and ages changed frequently and considerably!

In 1884, the family moved to Canada, leaving the girls behind.

Jane is on the UK Census in 1891 living on her own. She emigrated to Canada in 1899 and is on the the Can 1901 Census living with William (who is living apart from Ellen and sons!)

In 1911, Jane is living with Ellen and sons, William having died in 1906. (all this is in Montreal)

Ellen died in 1912.

I think that Mary Ellen Leeds married James Thomas Oddie in 1893 in Accrington

[Mk: We have a Swin marriage to an Oddie and gather this may link us in with the family tree of entertainer Bill Oddie. His origins were in Bowland but we were there before his ancestors]

In 1891, she's lodging with a family of Hayes's!

Fred became a Methodist Minister and most official documents after about 1901 refer to him as 'Rev Fred Swindlehurst'. As I've already mentioned, he joined the Canadian Army in 1915 and lived through the Somme, etc, able to tell the tale!

Arthur joined up in 1914 and died on the Somme; his name is recorded on the Vimy Memorial. We may find out more next year (2013) when the 1921 Canada Census is released.

Obituary for Robert Henry by Rev Schofield 1909:

The following account of an old scholar quoted from the local press may serve to show how some of the boys of wyresdale have managed to climb the ladder of success :-the career of the late Mr. R. H. Swindlehurst water engineer of Bolton le Moors whose remains were interred yesterday week is quite romantic and shows that it is possible for a youth to overcome the difficulties of poverty & environment and to rise to a high position.

Deceased was the son of a wyresdale woman who was very poor. He attended wyresdale school and was taken in hand by the School master Mr. Phizackerley, who realised the lad had abilities. The boy was a diligent student and during the winter evenings he used to do his lessons read books and pursue his studies by lying on the hearth with his books & slate on the floor, the only available light being the feeble glow from a peat or wood fire! His mother was too poor to afford lights and even the proverbial fathing dip was denied the lad.

When young Swindlehurst left school he entered the service of Mr. Bradshaw land surveyor who then resided at Smith Green Calgate as stable boy and handy lad. He drove Mr. Bradshaw into Lancaster nearly every day and also to various professional engagements and being of an observant & studious turn of mind he picked up a smattering of land surveying which he put to good use. Subsequently he went back to wyresdale where he entered into service & eventually accepted employment of a low grade kind under Mr. Maguire contractor for the Funness railway.

He utilised what knowledge he had & improved it and subsequently went to Buxton as a surveyor's timekeeper. He had now opportunity for further study which he made good use of and in a short time he accepted a responsible position, in connection with the Manchester Waterworks at Penistone. He was able to attend college for three years and at the end of that time he became assistant to the water engineer at Bolton-le-Moors. On the death of his chief Mr. Swindlehurst was appointed to the vacancy, which post he held at time of his death. He was a hard worker all his life and the large gathering at his funeral showed how much he was respected by colleagues & friends "

Wife/Mother Mary Jane died 2 Dec 1899

Glynis: .. on James death certificate [Father of Thomas above married to Mary Jane Beckett] the address was Bury Street, and it rung a bell well looking at the certificates its there again. It was on the marriage certificate of his son Thomas Swindlehurst. Married 11th August 1867 he was age 21 and worked as a packer the address was Bury Street, Salford, it does not give a house number tho. James Swindlehurst Father occupation Shoe maker
Mary Jane Beckett age 19, Bridgewater Street, her Father was Edward Beckett Painter.
So if that is the case it seems James lived at the same address at least 19years, Glyn: ... name Ruth Colley came up, as awhile ago while looking out for my Great Grandad Thomas Swindlehurst the said Policeman, i posted on Salford City History web if anyone knew or could help me?

By doing this my cousin who i had not seen since i was about 6 year old was doing the same as me. Some 50 odd years later.

But the Thomas she wanted was my Dads brother so it was her Grandad.

... I have never been able to find records for Thomas Swindlehurst during his serving years in the police force, there just does not seem to be any.

I even went to the Police Museum in Manchester and they did a check but came up with nothing.

The census does show clearly he was a Police Sargeant for a number of years until his retirement in his 50's, Date of birth 1st March 1847, he had a number of children and married twice, his late wife Mary Jane Beckett from Holm Westmorland, and last marriage was to his sister in law. That i found out in the 1911 census which did puzzle me at the time. His eldest daughter Alice was a dress maker later to become a music hall singer under the stage name of Alisa Douglas, i have not found out much about her.

And later on he became a publican of the pub called The Ellesmere Inn on Ellesmere Street, Salford.

My Dad remembers his Grandad Thomas coming to visit them when they lived in Trafford Park as kids and how scared they where as a kids, because he still had a stick he walked with which he use to hit against the wall. The same stick he had while being a Sergeant.

He said you could hear him coming before you could see him, and when he came in if his son my Dad's Dad Samuel was not there and at the pub he was sent for, to return home now. Which i find funny as he became a publican.

Thomas Swindlehurst (1847 - 1926)

Thomas Swindlehurst was a Sergeant with Salford Police Force and retired to become Landlord of the Ellesmere Inn. He was born on 1st March 1847 at 48, Sidmouth Street, Salford. He was the son of James and Alice (nee Moores) Swindlehurst.

James, (1816 – 1886) was a Shoe-maker. Thomas, was Christened at Manchester Cathedral on 26th December 1847. He married Mary Jane Beckett (born 1848 at Holm, Westmorland) at St Simon's Church Salford on 11th August 1867. Her parents were James Becket (born 1818) and Margaret Tanner (born 1821). On the marriage certificate, Thomas was aged 21, a Packer and lived at 96, Bury Street Salford. Mary Jane was 19 and lived at Bridgewater Street.

They had six children: Alice (born 1869) was a dress-maker in her younger days, then became a Music Hall vocalist and went under the stage name of Ailsa Douglas; James Edward (born 1870, married Lydia P Lowe in Salford by Registrar and died on 24th March 1911, aged 41); Martha (born 1875), who became a Drapers Assistant; Thomas (born 18th August 1877 and died 1st May 1887 aged 9); Samuel (born 1880, married Agnes Beatrice Bett in 1902 and died 18th November 1933).

He was a Bell Fitter and became a Steeplejack. The last child was Margaret (born 1884 and married William Jones at Stowell Memorial Church in 1911).

In 1877, Thomas was a Police Sergeant and the Swindlehurst family lived at 8, Hatton Street. In 1887, the family was living at the Police Station on Great Cheetham Street East, Broughton. There is a family legend that Thomas was the first policeman on horseback to control a football match and when the horse died he had it stuffed and put on display! Thomas's wife Mary Jane died on 2nd December 1899 age 51. In 1902, when son Samuel was married, Thomas was a retired Policeman and lived at 26, Kent Street Salford. He used to help his daughter Alice in the theatre. However, in the same year (1902),

Thomas married again to Annie Becket, who was his late wife's brother's widow. In 1909 he was described as a Beer Retailer of 32 Ellesmere Street (corner of Martha Street). The 1911 census reveals that Thomas was the Landlord of the Ellesmere Inn on Ellesmere Street, Salford.

Thomas Swindlehurst died at Ellesmere Street on 24th October 1926 aged 79. The funeral was held on 28th October and he was buried with his first wife Mary Jane, in plot 33 of the Dissenters portion of Weaste Cemetery. Rev A.H. Kelloway officiated.

(We are very grateful to Glynis Hirst (nee Swindlehurst) for providing this information about her Great Grandfather).

[Charles, a Printer, born 6 Sep 1847, Red Cow Inn, Kimbrose Ally, Gloucester. England
Christened 10 Oct 1847, St James, Quedgeley, Gloucester]

Susan & Charles married 23 Jan 1869, Guelph, Wellington Co, Ontario, Canada.

Children:

1. Harold A. Taylor
2. Charles Nattress Taylor [May be same as Charles Ignatius below]
3. Aileen Taylor. Birth 8 Dec 1875 Guelph, Wellington, Ontario
4. Charles Ignatius Taylor. Birth 8 Apr 1878 Guelph, Wellington, Ontario
4. Frederick Taylor
5. William John Taylor. 13 Mar 1886 Guelph, Wellington, Ontario

Dy: The file is, of course, about the Taylor family so this is the only ref to the Swindlehurst link. Charles Bevan Taylor and his wife Susan Alice (nee Swindlehurst) lived in Guelph until 1900 when they moved to Toronto.

When Barry did his research, the online resources we have now did not exist. Just had a quick canter through the Lancs Parish Clerk and this is the most likely fit for the birth of William c1817. The fact that it states his father is a mechanic in both the birth and marriage entries kind of ties it in even though the spelling of the surname is with a G not a D. Though I'm including these records I am NOT sure they are the right family without more research. I'm merely saying they seem very likely to be the right family. You may know differently Mike!

William and Rosanna Swindlehurst are in Preston in 1841 but the surname is wrongly transcribed on Ancestry as Heherrst! There is a sort of white mark over part of the name so I can see why this might have happened but you can zoom in and clearly see that it's William Swindlehurst with Rosanna (spelt Rosannah) and their 2 eldest children. William's occupation is given as machine maker. Also in the household are John Heherrst aged 25 who. like William, is a machine maker. Also a Sarah Herherrst aged 20 who could be either John's wife (mostly likely) or the sister of John and William (no birth record fits for that scenario). See the possible marriage ref of John and Sarah below. The age of Sarah is given as 20 on the 1841 census but the 1841 is notoriously inaccurate! William's age of 25 in 1841 fits with the birth details from Slaidburn.

There is also the following marriage record:

Marriage: 31 Oct 1840 St John, Preston, Lancashire, England
John Swindlehurst - (X), 25, Mechanic, Bachelor, Greenbank Terrace

permitted gambling in his house, the Weavers' Arms (Mill Street), Padiham, and James Cooper..."

From Burnley Gov uk:

3.5.2 Padiham was no exception with a large concentration of inns and beerhouses located within Area 1 and clustered around the original market place. The growth in the number of drinking establishments in Padiham has been documented in the commercial directories of the 19th century. For example, prior to the Beer Act the Lancashire General Directory of 1818-1820 (p 123-4) detailed six inns in Padiham. These were the (Old) Black Bull, Bay Horse, Swan, Weavers Arms, Masons Arms and Starkie Arms. By 1834 there were 10 taverns/public houses and 10 retailers of beer serving a population of 3,529 (Pigot, 1834, p.507).

Paul: The S.Wales connection has been frustrating. The records may not be complete. The starting point was William b. Neath Jy-Sp 1889.

His father was William, b.Preston c1844, d. Bridgend Ap-Jn 1898. He married Mary Jane Beer (b.Barnstaple Ap-Jn 1847) in Swansea Oc-Dc 1869.

He had a brother Robert, also b. Preston c.1851. he married Sarah Ann ??

I also found a death for a Robert in Gower Ja-Mr 1869, age 58. My guess is that he was the father of William (1844) and Robert (1851).

I can find no trace in 1851 or '61. Again a guess, but they may have emigrated before 1841, and returned after 1861

There are offspring of both, but there doesn't appear to any male descendants, though there are odd isolated Swins. For instance, in Llansamlet in 1881, there is a Margaret age 47 b. St.Clears in Carmarthenshire, and a John age 15, b. St.Clears. Both are described as relatives of the "John" family.

Robert may have married the later Widowed Margaret (married to Widower Thomas Jones 1881) 1829-1866 having a son John as in:

JOHN SWINDLEHURST. Birth 22 May 1866. Christening: 20 JUN 1866 Saint Mary, Swansea, Glamorgan, Wales

From descendant researcher Jan in Wales:

Not sure if I have the right William Swindlehurst as Robert Swindlehursts father. According to the marriage cert of William Swindlehurst that I have his wife was Mary Jane Beer, but Roberts mother is on the birth certificate as Mary Jane Guard. But in the household that I think is Mary Jane Beer's parents in the 1861 Wales census there is a step son Charles Guard in the household, so did she put her real surname on the birth certificate of her son and her step fathers name on her marriage certificate? Or am I dealing with two William Swindlehursts and two Robert Swindlehursts

Hi Mike, yes that would be good. I do have a problem however re if I have the right William Swindlehurst. I'm not sure if there may be two living in the area both with Robert as their son. See attached.

In addition I have had the copy of Robert Swindlehurst death who was born in 1811. Have you already got a copy of this? he died 15/01/1869 in The Dunvant, Llandridian Higher aged 58 years. occupation labourer cause of death phthisis and the informant is William Swindlehurst who was present at the death in The Dunvant, Llanrhidian Higher. Is this another Robert and William line?

I will have to take a trip to Llanrhidian to see if I can find a grave there, but when I woke up today it was snowing and its quite an out of the way place and dont fancy getting stuck in the snow! I'll wait until tomorrow and see what it is like its a nice trip on a sunny day. Unfortunately I only have the rest of this week off so will be stuck for time and use of the car after that. There is a pub called The Dunvant in Dunvant but I used to live in Dunvant when I was small and I can remember it being built. Before that it was a house which they knocked down but I cant remember if the house was called the Dunvant or not but its a fair way from Llanrhidian so I dont think it would have been in the same registration district, but you never know.

(1) Hi I am tracing a Welsh branch of the Swindlehursts and wondered if they are connected with any of your Swindlehursts? I have attached a brief outline of their history. I did wonder if the Robert Swindlehurst who is in the 1891 Wales census in Singleton fisheries could be my William's brother but haven't been able to verify anything yet.

(2) Hi David yes please copy my message on. My husband's grand mother was a Swindlehurst so i am not directly descended but am doing both our family trees. Having trouble finding out William's date and place of birth. On the census' he is down as born Lancaster or Preston Lancastershire. Have been out today trying to find my William Swindlehurst's grave in Tonna, but part of the graveyard is covered with Japanese Knotweed over head high and many of the graves are unmarked. Am trying to find out if there is a plan but having read another website of someone trying to find their ancestors buried there it doesn't sound as if there is one. Ah well. There is a record of him in the Cardiff archives when he was admitted to Bridgend Asylum, so will have to follow that up and see if there was a birth date there.

Dy: Might not have been on my genealogy sheet but John SW born 1832 who married Jane PARKINSON was widowed c1868. He married Mary WHITTAKER on 19 Nov 1870.

In the 1871 census they were living with her children (Eliza/Ellen/Esther/Sarah WHITTAKER) and his (Agnes/Jane/John/Margaret/William) in a 2 up 2 down in Burnley!

Here are my notes for Mary WHITTAKER

Mary was illiterate and signed the marriage certificate with her X mark. She was a widow and brought her four daughters from her previous marriage with her to the Swindlehurst household.

Her maiden name was Brotherton, her father being Thomas and her brother, Laurence.

She appears on the Burnley census for 1871, '81 and 1891 but died prior to the 1901 census.

Her brother Laurence appears in the 1891 census for Lower House living quite close to both her and John and also William and Sarah Swindlehurst. Laurence is at 2 George Street. In the census it is one page away from William and Sarah and two pages away from John and Mary. In the 1891 census John Swindlehurst and Mary are at 10 Hambledon View and Laurence and family are at 2 George Street which is adjacent to Hambledon View.

She died intestate and a copy of the administration of her estate was obtained from the court records. Husband John was the sole benefactor.

Mary died 23 Feb 1901 Habergham Eaves, Burnley

Ar: FROM BOWLAND TO BARROWFORD

..... Many of the local people of Higham appear to have made the move to Heywood at the same time, as Census returns of Castleton and Heywood show. Among these was Elizabeth, the sister of John and James, with her husband Joseph Foster of Sabden. James and Jane (nee Ingham) with their son Richard shared the same mill as Cotton Weavers in their own right. The Inghams had come from Newchurch in Pendle, they shared Room and Power at the Ivy Green Mill and lived at 24, William Street, Heywood.

Little did these people know that the 1860's were going to prove to be very difficult times for the cotton industry. Almost the whole of the staple cotton came from the southern states of America, but with that nation embroiled in a bloody Civil War and the southern ports blockaded by northern ships, virtually no supplies of raw cotton were reaching Liverpool. Cotton workers throughout Lancashire were being laid off and there was widespread poverty. Many manufacturers became bankrupt.

The Swinglehurst brothers however, battled on and by 1871 we learn that the mill had 57 employees including daughters Mary Ann, now 17, employed as a beamer, Susannah, aged 16, a weaver, and Caroline Foster their cousin aged 20, another weaver. In addition John, the farmer from Simonstone and grandfather of the three girls was now employed as a "Cut Looker". He was now 76 years of age and near the end of his life. He had become a widower twice over and had come to live with his daughter Elizabeth Foster at 105 Greentown, Castleton. He actually died later in 1871 at the home of his son John at 6 William Street, Heywood, and was buried in Heywood Cemetery. (Grave ref. Con.G.278). John Swinglehurst died age 77 on 22.7.1871. The grave also contains the remains of Joseph Foster age 53, d.1874, painter and decorator of Brunswick Street, Heap, Heywood - Elizabeth Foster age 64, d.1885 at 7 Rochdale Road, Heap and Emily Warburton age 14 months d.1885, daughter of Daniel and Caroline Warburton of Garnet St. Castleton.

William Street was adjacent to John Street and the Ivy Green Mill, quite handy for the master. It has now been renamed Queens Park Road but John Street is still there. James on the other hand lived with his wife Elizabeth at 32 Greentown, Castleton, a mile or so to the east. There seems to be no record of any offspring, and it is assumed that if there were any they have been assimilated into the population of Manchester.

The troublesome times of the 1860's did not leave John altogether unscathed. In 1867 his wife Ann died, leaving him with the four girls born at- Higham now aged between 8 and 13 years. In addition he now had two sons born at Heywood - John William aged 6 years and Josiah only 3 years old. In December 1868 John married Sarah Maria Maneice, a young lady from Nantwich who admitted to being born in Manchester. She was 4 years younger than John and said to have Irish connections. She was apparently of a "well to do" family for several items of quality furniture and oil paintings, some of which are still in the family, are attributed to her.

What happened during the late 1870's is still a mystery. Possibly the business failed or it was wound up or sold. Its name disappeared from the Trade Directories of Heywood but old papers in the records left by Frank Swinglehurst mention very briefly the "Up Steps Inn" at Oldham and there was an old photograph of this. My father said his grandfather used to own the Inn and his sister Marion said her father Josiah lived at Oldham before his marriage. Does this mean that John became a publican? Both Frank and Marion were of the opinion that their grandfather travelled about quite a lot in the cotton industry. Did he combine this with Inn keeping or was the public house just a temporary venture whilst he was able to re-establish himself as a Pattern Card Maker in the cotton industry at 85 Pheobe Street, Salford? By the 1880's and during the 1890's Salford was being mentioned in the family story. (Slaters 1885 Directory)

It would be about 1884/5 when the family started moving back to the Pendle area, probably just after the death of Sarah, the second wife of John. The girls were all married now and had taken up residence in Higham and Fence. John William married a Brierfield girl in 1887 and started a plumbing business in Nelson. Whilst Josiah, having received his Education at Manchester Grammar School, qualified as a pharmacist. He was employed in a chemist shop in Mossley in the late 1880's and this is probably the period when he is said to have travelled from his home in Oldham (Up Steps Inn?).
