1886: CATHERINE SWINDLEHURST & JOHN CORLESS

[Catherine daughter of William Swindlehurst & Elizabeth Weavell married 8 Aug 1849 St Eadmer, Bleasdale, Lancs.]
[John son of William Corless, Breaksman]

Catherine (27 Spinster of 34 Fylde Road) & John (33 Signalman Bachelor of 10 Markham Street)
married (by Banns) 25 Dec 1886 St Mark, Preston, Lancashire
Witnesses: Henry Corless; Ellen Hamer

Marriage: 25 Dec 1886 St Mark, Preston, Lancashire, England
John Corless - 33 Signalman Bachelor of 10 Markham Street
Catherine Swindlehurst - 27 Spinster of 34 Fylde Road
Groom's Father: William Corless, Breaksman
Bride's Father: William Swindlehurst, Cow Keeper
Witness: Henry Corless; Ellen Hamer
Married by Banns by: W. F. Newton Vicar

Children:

1. Mary Elizabeth Coreless. Born about 1888. Died about 1954 Preston
[Married Edwin/Edward Walsh 1912 Preston St Mark]
2. William H. Corless. Born about 1890
3. Gertrude M. Corless. Born about 1893
4. Margaret (Minnie) Coreless. Born about 1896

Children of MARGARET CORELESS and JOHN REEDER are:

- i. JOHN JAMES<sup>4</sup> REEDER, b. 1917, Preston; d. 02 Feb 1945, Reichswald Forest.
- ii. DOROTHY REEDER, b. 1920, Preston.
- iii. CATHERINE REEDER, b. 1923, Preston.

Rn: Catherine was baptised in St. Lawrence's church Barton on the 14 November 1859<sup>27</sup> and on the 1861 census for Barton she is 1 year old.

In 1871 she was living with her family at 18 River Street, Preston as a 10-year-old scholar. She was still there in 1881 as a 21 year old Cotton Weaver.

She was a witness at the marriage of her older sister, Elizabeth at Christ Church in 1877.

Aged 27 years, Catherine married John Coreless a Signalmen of 10 Markham Street, at St. Mark's church on Christmas day 1886.

She gave her address as 34 Fylde Road indicating that she was probably helping her sister run the Princess Alexandra.

The 1891 census for Preston shows Catherine living at 9 Markham Street aged 31 and a Cotton Weaver born in Barton.

She had two small children living at home, Mary E. aged 3 years and William H. aged 10 months.

The 1901 census for 9 Markham Street shows two additional children, Margaret aged 8 and Gertrude M aged 6.

We accidentally came across the grave of Catherine in Preston Cemetery in January 2004. The gravestone in Plot O CE read:

In loving memory of Catharine Coreless who died 24th September 1914 in her 54th year.

Also John Coreless husband of the above who died October 16th 1916 aged 63 years.

Also John James Reeder, Scots Guards son of John and Minnie Reeder and grandson of the above who died February 16th 1945 aged 27.

The 1950/51 electoral roll for Preston shows John and Minnie Reeder present at 26 Woodplumpton Road which Gill now remembers as a Butcher's shop and one where Gill's grandma used to clean. Gill remembers some daughters, one possibly called Kathleen.

Gertrude, known as Daisy, later married Frederick Goldsborough and lived at 7 Belmont Road with her sister Margaret. Gill used to visit them with her mother, Kathleen Crane, but did not understand at that time, who they were! Strangely, but perhaps because of her deafness, Gill's grandma didn't visit. There were no children.

Mary E or 'Mary Lizzie', later to become Livesey, was the godmother of Kathleen Crane and left Kathleen £200 in her will.

Eddie Livesey gave away Kathleen Crane at her wedding to George Wilkinson.

Nellie Wilkinson, Dick and George Wilkinson, Kathleen Crane, Eddie Livesey and Mary Alice Wilkinson.

It is from the likeness in the following photograph that we have postulated that the couple in the photograph are Eddie Livesey and Mary Lizzie Swindlehurst taken sometime during WW I.

Mary Lizzie Swindlehurst and Eddie Livesey

Mary Lizzie and Eddie Livesey did not have children of their own and lived in Hillside Avenue adjacent to Savick Road, the home of the Wilkinson family from 1937. They lived there until their death sometime when Gill was a little girl.
