From the Stockport1914 website:

Private Frederick Harry Swindlehurst 267901 1/6th Battalion CHESHIRE Regiment

Death 31 July 1917. Age 30. Cemetery: Menin Gate Memorial, Ieper, Belgium

Frederick had been born in Levenshulme, Manchester. His birth was registered at Chorlton between July and September 1886. The 1901 Census records that his father, Joseph, then aged 53, had been born in Warton, Lancashire and was a railway stationmaster (at Heaton Chapel Station). His mother, Sarah, was aged 55 and had been born in Leamington.

The Census also shows that, at 14, Frederick was the youngest of the children. Also recorded were Charles (17, born Levenshulme, a clerk at a railway food department), Ellen (23, born Denton, a dressmaker), Harriett (18, born Levenshulme), Millicent (20, born Levenshulme, school teacher) and William (21, born Denton, a clerk)

Frederick worked for John Heywood & Sons, Ltd, printers and stationers, Manchester. He enlisted at Stockport into the local Territorial Battalion. His original number, 5225, is not an early one and it is probable he did not join up until 1916. He was killed during an attack on the first day of the Third Battle of Ypres.

Stockport's worst day of the War. 3rd Battle of Ypres – the capture of St Julian Date: 31 July 1917 Regiment: 1/6th Battalion, Cheshire Regiment

Possibly related to them is the following:

1861, Preston

Mary Ann, 46, Scorton - shown as Head, Married: Helen,21, Scorton; Elizabeth, 19, Scorton; Alice, 10, Preston; Richard,6, Preston; Mary Ann, 10m, Preston

I hope this is of help. I'll be happy to delve further if you wish. I didn't find a death for John or Edith, nor a marriage for the presumed daughters.

Paul

From our family researcher (John) Gary Swindlehurst:

I'm pretty sure that these ladies were nothing to do with my line, although I haven't found anything certain regarding Maureen Lucy, Mrs..

With regard to Diana Margaret, Miss, I have unearthed the following, which I hope is correct:

b. Bristol, 01.06.1920, mother Murphy

m. q4 1950, Surrey to Richard Stanley Latham (a Government Officer, as it turns out!)

d. q1 1993, Salisbury.

Arr UK, 24.02.1958 in Liverpool from West Africa aboard 'Aureol' – I sailed on this ship as a deck cadet in 1972!!

Family was Richard, Diana and 2 sons, Michael John and Hugh Jeremy

From here I'm a bit less sure of my ground.

A John Swindlehurst married Edith A.C. Murphy in Bristol in q2 1914. If these are the parents of Diana then I think that John was the son of Richard Swindlehurst of Preston (b. 1853) and Margaret Ellen Swindlehurst of Bradford (see attached censuses). Richard, in turn, was probably the son of Thomas (b. 1827, Scorton, Wyresdale) and Nancy (b. 1822, Cockerham).

I think that Maureen may have re-married in about 1949, but haven't yet found a marriage to a Swindlehurst!

Groom's Father: Robert Swindlehurst. Groom's Mother: Mary A Lord

Gary: FYI: My gg-grandfather's elder brother, William, emigrated to Canada, and it is their son Arthur (b Accr. 1878) who died at Vimy Ridge in 1916. He was initially posted as missing in action before being confirmed KIA. His brother Fred – usually documented as Rev Fred – also joined the Canadian army, in 1915, as a stretcher bearer, was gassed on the Somme and commissioned in the field for carrying on his duties! He survived the war and is mentioned in several crossings of the US/Canada border through the 1920's.

Gary: I thought that I'd let you know that I've managed to confirm (at least to my satisfaction!) that Arthur A Swindlehurst of Massachusetts in the 1920 and 30 censuses, was actually my great-grandfather Robert's younger brother, Arthur (without the extra A! Which, by-the-by, stood for Adams).

Bride's Father: Frank Foisey. Bride's Mother: Elizabeth Plante

Collection: Massachusetts Marriages, 1841-1915]

The attached newspaper extracts show A.A.Swindlehurst's death announcement, with a comment that he was from England and had only one living relative – a brother in England (This would be Courtland, who died in 1949, although I have no knowledge of what happened to his sister Mary Jane)

Under 'Will filed', the other paper announces the probate of his will with Josephine Merrill as executrix. This, I believe, was Arthur's brother Christopher's daughter-in-law. C's son, John Robert, married Josephine Boynton in 1930, had two kids, and promptly handed back the luncheon vouchers in 1932! Josephine enjoyed (?) widowhood until 1942, shortly after the death of Christopher, when she married Francis William Merrill (who was able to trace almost all his antecedents back to the pilgrim ships!)

EXTRAS

COMMONWEALTH FAMILY MEMBERS WHO SERVED IN THE FIRST WORLD WAR

There is a report that around 60% of Commonwealth records were lost in a bombing raid so more of our family may have served than shown here. Yet to find a USA source for such WW1 records so likely many of our family members there and in other Countries served as well.

123rd Brigade attacked north of the canal with two companies of the 23rd Middlesex, 11th Queen's, 10th Royal West Kents and 20th Durham Light Infantry in support. Despite meeting strong resistance they managed to take the first objective, the Red Line. Progress was slow owing to the state of the ground and the barrage which got ahead of the attacking troops. An attempt was made to take the Green Line, but a line of pillboxes resisted all attempts at capture.
