Swindlehurst, Helen I.. Birth: 1892 Death: 1961. Spouse: Lloyd W. Swindlehurst (1895-1982)
Burial: Heyworth Cemetery, Heyworth, McLean County, Illinois, USA

Online post from Zabra McDonald:

My grandmother's uncle was William Lloyd Swindlehurst. He was a vet in Heyworth, IL, McLean Co. He married my grandmother's aunt Helen King. The date of which I don't know. My grandmother had fond memories of him when he was dating her aunt and later after their marriage. There were no children born to this marriage.

My grandmother, Dorothy Weaver, was the daughter of Stella Mae King Drew. She and her sister were born in Sullivan, IL. The King family later moved to Heyworth, Il., because the father wanted to start a bakery and Sullivan already had a bakery. That is what my grandmother, Dorothy Weaver told. My great-great uncle Lloyd was a character in every sense of the word. He was quiet and always wore glasses. One side was some kind of prescription that made the lense an opaque glass. He always wore longjohns, heavy wool pants and a wool flannel shirt to Christmas at my grandmother's house. He always was welcome at my grandmother's house, because Nana, said we are the only family he has. He was always one of my favorite people in the family. He loved to fish and my great-aunt and my great-uncle, Dorothy Weaver's sister and brother in law, would take him fishing with them to Wisconsin or Canada or just to a river or lake. He love was fishing. He lived until Jan 1982. He died after my great-aunt and uncle had died. I think he died because he no longer could drive down to Villa Grove and have some one to fish with. I really don't know what he died of.
He was well loved in our family.

Owen Swindlehurst was Roman Catholic Auxiliary Bishop of Hexham and Newcastle for over 18 years, and also Bishop of Chester-le-Street, with pastoral responsibility for most of the area between Tyne and Tees.

He was born in 1928 at Newburn, then in Northumberland. A youthful conviction that he was called to priesthood led to junior seminary at Ushaw College, near Durham; and his outstanding talent ensured a place at the Venerable English College in Rome in 1948 to read philosophy and theology. After ordination into the priesthood by Cardinal Traglia in 1954, at Rome, he followed a postgraduate course for a Doctorate in Canon Law; probably his shyness made him avoid publishing a thesis he had publicly defended in Latin and so he technically also avoided the doctorate award.

Italy draws many away from England; Owen Swindlehurst's 10 years there gave him a great love for the country and for the city of Rome, but left intact his lifelong loves of north-east England, and an even deeper love of his solid Catholic faith.

He returned to England in 1958 and successfully combined parish work, in Ponteland and later Newcastle, with diocesan work, mainly as a personal secretary to the Bishop for 10 years, then more in the specialised canon law of marriage. He always balanced accurate legal knowledge with pastoral sensitivity. This was recognised by his fellow priests who regularly chose him to represent them at diocesan and national levels.

After becoming parish priest at Holy Name, Jesmond, Newcastle, in 1971, he led the parish into the developments of the Second Vatican Council. In particular, his understanding introduction of celebrating Mass completely in English helped those who felt sad at the loss of Latin; it has proved a sound preparation for today's high standard of parish celebration with singing. He founded a consultative parish council which was instrumental in his commissioning of a compact parish centre. Also, his friendship with local Anglican, Methodist and United Reformed Church clergy started a custom of joint weekly prayer in Holy Name church.

Appointed Auxiliary Bishop in 1977 and given pastoral care of most Catholics between Tyne and Wear, he was regularly seen in Catholic parishes and schools but also worked with the other churches: the Anglican/ Roman Catholic St John and St Patrick's joint church school in Sunderland was established in his time. His fellow bishops often used his expert knowledge in pro- life issues, not least in the Joint Bio-Ethical Committee shared with the bishops of Scotland and Ireland.

Working with him was a joy, especially for his good judgement and keen sense of humour. Once, after I had spoken in English the traditionally wordy thanks to a high Vatican official who had greatly helped us, I saw the twinkle in his eye as he translated it into the impossibly brief and formal, "His Excellency is grateful" ("Sua Eccellenza e molto contento").

While he was still fit for long walks and strenuous squash, lung cancer took away first his voice then the fitness. In his last press interview, he spoke much less about his illness and more of his love of Italy, Rome and the Church. His devotion to Newcastle United lasted to the end.

Milt Swindlehurst. Born 15 Nov 1928 Kindersley, Saskatchewan, Canada

MILT SWINDLEHURST Suddenly but peacefully, on Friday, July 20, 2012, Milt was taken from us. Left to mourn are his beloved wife Betty, daughters Kim (Dennis), Lee (David), and son John (Kari); grandchildren Sean (Jill), Tannis (Paul), Christopher, Lauren, Allora, Meagan and Mark; great-grandchildren Taylor, Aidan and Mackenna. Born in Kindersley, Saskatchewan on November 15, 1928, only child of Mark and Mary Swindlehurst, the family moved to Winnipeg where Milt attended Lord Roberts and Kelvin schools. Always a keen athlete, Milt participated in all sports. Upon leaving Kelvin he had to choose between baseball and hockey. He opted for hockey and sailed to England where he played professionally in London for the Harringay Racers for five seasons. It was in London that he met his future wife Betty (Smith) and they were married on November 14, 1953. Upon returning to Canada in 1954, Milt went to work in the general insurance industry, which he pursued all his working life. Many happy summers were spent at Falcon Lake. An avid down hill skier, he took a trip to the mountains every winter. On retirement, Milt and Betty spent all their winters in Texas and Arizona. Always a quiet and private man, Milt loved his family. After moving into the condo he loved visiting the family and walking their dogs. A longtime member of The Wildewood Club, Milt walked and played nine holes of golf with his friends every day, including the morning he passed away. At the request of the deceased, there will be no funeral or memorial service. With Milt's love of animals, donations to The Winnipeg Humane Society, in lieu of flowers, would be appreciated. God Bless You Milt / Dad / Grandad. We will miss you.

1930: JOHN ROBERT SWINDLEHURST & JOSEPHINE BOYNTON

[John son of Christopher Swindlehurst & Edith E. Bailey married 29 Mar 1900 New Hampshire]

Jg: Chris's son, John Robert, married Josephine Boynton in 1930.

They had 2 children, Edith and John Robert. JR Jr died in 2006, leaving a John Robert of his own. Further details are available if needed.

Point of interest - Josephine remarried, almost immediately after Christopher's death in 1942.

Her husband was Francis William Merrill, who could trace just about every track in his ancestry back to the Pilgrim Ships, 1620 - 1640, and beyond

Mk: One of our early researchers claimed to have found a deportation record of ours for one of the Mayflower trips. I gather there is a large branch of Swindles/Swindells originating from Jamestown. Their origins were in parts of Lancashire where members of our family lived.

1. Edith Swindlehurst. Birth 1931 New Hampshire
[Married Clifton Rumrill]

Warner, NH-Edith L. (Swindlehurst) Bartlett Rumrill, 84, of Route 103 East, died peacefully on Sunday, September 13, 2015 at her home with family and felines.

She was born in Hillsboro, NH on January 5, 1931 the daughter of Christopher and Josephine L. (Boynton) Swindlehurst. She lived in Warner for 62 years. Edith graduated from Concord High School and also from UNH with a triple major in French, Spanish and History. She continued her studies at UNH so that she could teach math. She began substitute teaching at Simonds Free High School in Warner in 1956 and then became a fulltime math teacher in 1959. Edith stayed at Simonds and then went on to Kearsarge Regional High School in Sutton, NH where she taught math for another 18 years or so. After her retirement she became a caregiver for several family members. She was active at St. Andrews Episcopal Church in Hopkinton where she served on the Vestry and sang in the choir. She was a major volunteer and supporter of the Pillsbury Free Library in Warner and was instrumental in starting the Warner Bridge Club which meets at the Library. While at Kearsarge, Edith coached cheerleading and was class advisor. She was always available to her students and they were her life. She showed each student individual respect and encouragement and was a woman with outstanding values.

Her husband, Clifton R. Rumrill, died in 1997 and she was also predeceased by a brother, John Robert Swindlehurst. She is survived by a daughter, Cathy Consentino of Warner, NH; a stepson and his wife, Merton and Joanne Rumrill of Manchester, NH; grandchildren; nieces and a nephew.
