Children given in following Obituary

Online obituary: Hugh Donald Swindlehurst, 83, of Rosebush passed away on Saturday, July 2, 2005, at Mid Michigan Medical Center in Clare.

Funeral services for Don will be held on Wednesday, July 6, 2005, at 1:00 p.m. at the Rosebush Presbyterian Church with Rev. Mary Ann Evans-Justin officiating. The family will receive friends at Helms Funeral Home in Mt. Pleasant on Tuesday, July 5, 2005, from 2:00 p.m. to 4:00 p.m. and 6:00 p.m. to 8:00 p.m. and an hour before the service on Wednesday at the Church.

Don was born July 28, 1921, in Rosebush, the son of Hugh and Marie Swindlehurst; he resided in Rosebush all of his life. He attended Mt. Pleasant High School and received from College of Life Insurance Underwriters (CLU) on Brynmar, PA. Don married Onalee Graham on August 9, 1941; together they had three children and they raised registered Angus cattle on the Donlee Stockfarm.

Among his many jobs Don worked as a gas station operator, owned and operated a creamery route, worked in the oilfields, was a feed salesman and was an agent for the Farm Bureau Insurance Company for 25 years. As an insurance agent he was highly successful, winning many awards and trips. Don was a life-long member of the Rosebush Presbyterian Church and served as the Sunday School Superintendent and an Elder. He was active in the Isabella-Denver 4-H Club, working with beef cattle. He enjoyed farming, golf and traveling. He especially enjoyed his winters in Florida.

Don is survived by his wife Onalee, and his children, Margie Geasler (James Achterberg) of Zephyrhills, Florida; Lynn Swindlehurst (Susie) of Lake Isabella; and Marianne Krautmanis (Agris) of Kalamazoo, Michigan. He is also survived by his brother, Tom Swindlehurst (Pat) of Mt. Pleasant; sister, Leona Sims (Pete) of Mt. Pleasant; and Ann Knapp (Gary) of Mt Pleasant; seven grandchildren and nine great grandchildren. Don was preceded in death by his parents, one sister, Dorothy Robertson and one brother, Jim Swindlehurst. [\[Jim's Obituary as follows\]](#) Memorial contributions may be made to the Rosebush Presbyterian Church or the Rosebush Manor, of which Don was a contributing founder.

James, 56, of Mt. Pleasant passed away Tuesday, September 24, 2013 at the Woodland Hospice House.

Funeral Services for Chet will be held at Clark Family Funeral Chapel on Friday, September 27, 2013 with Cheryl Davis officiating.

Memorial contributions may be made to Woodland Hospice.

Chet was the son of James and Genevieve (Marshall) Swindlehurst. Chet enjoyed riding motorcycles, four wheelers, jet skis, and snowmobiles, pretty much anything that would go fast and was dangerous.

He loved going camping with his family. There was nothing more important to Chet than his family.

Chet is survived by his special friend, Elaine Stauffer; children, Rikki Stauffer, Molly Davis, Kayla, James, and Wyatt Swindlehurst; grand daughter, Adriann Stauffer; mother, Genevieve; siblings, Charles Swindlehurst and Bart (Linda) Swindlehurst; and many nieces, nephews, cousins, aunts, and uncles.

Chet was preceded in death by his father, James; sister, Lou Ellen; and grandparents, Hugh and Marie

Swindlehurst and Bond and Mabel Marshall.

Swindlehurst, Alice Lorraine Thomas. Birth: Jul. 3, 1929 North Creek, Beaver County, Utah, USA Death: Feb. 25, 2015 Lancaster, Los Angeles County, California, USA

Alice Lorraine Thomas Swindlehurst was born July 3, 1929 to Richard and Sarah Thomas in North Creek, Utah. She was eighth of ten children. She grew up in Northcreek and Beaver, attending Belknap Elementary and graduating from Beaver High School in 1947.

She married her high school sweetheart, Leon Swindlehurst, July 1, 1948 in the St. George Temple.

Alice was involved in community and church service her entire life. From Race Meet Queen to American Legion Auxiliary President, to Young Women's President, and seminary teacher, she enjoyed working side-by side with lifelong friends and particularly the youth. Alice was the founder and president of the first Red Hat chapter in Beaver. Music was always a part of Alice's life; she taught herself to play the piano and sang in multiple choirs. With her strong alto voice, she cherished her time as a member of a women's quartet, singing at many events around the county.

Always a supportive wife and mother, Alice worked outside of the home much of her life. She worked for Lowe's Farm Equipment, while running the local State Liquor Store. She was smart and precise in all of her business dealings.

Alice and Leon moved with their family to California in 1966. In California, she worked as a receptionist and business manager in a dental office and finished her work career as an eligibility worker in the Los Angeles County Welfare Department from which she retired after 20 years.

Alice was a great person to be around. Whether you were six or sixty or ninety, children and adults alike loved to be in Alice's company for a casual visit, a delicious home cooked meal, a dance, a party, or for serious life advice.

Alice died February 25, 2015 in Lancaster, California in the home of her son, Rod. Her children were at her side as she passed into the arms of her waiting sweetheart.

She is preceded in death by the love of her life, Leon; her parents, Richard and Sarah; and step-mother, Euzell; eight sisters, Ruth, Audrey, Josephine, Virginia, Shirley, Margie, Helen and Nell; five brothers, Eldon, Doug, Jack, Neil and Dan, several nieces and nephews. (We know the math doesn't work if Alice was eighth of ten children. After her mother Sarah died, her father married Euzell Rhenstrom who had four children. No one, in either "birth" family, to the best of our knowledge, ever made the distinction between step brother or sister and blood brother or sister. They were all great friends and associated throughout their lives.)

Alice is survived by her four children, Rod and Joni Swindlehurst, Ross and Nancy Swindlehurst, Lanette and Darrell Perkins, Ray and Lynn Swindlehurst; grandchildren Rex, Ashley, Jeremy, Kassie, Cameron, Katie, Kellie, Jeff, Dwayne, Deanna; great grandchildren Angela, Elijah, Caleb, Jessie Kate, Keegan, and Sawyer; sisters-in-law Barbara Rhenstrom (Neil), LaNae Thomas (Doug), Anna Mae Thomas (Dan) and numerous nieces and nephews who adored her.

Funeral services will be held Tuesday, March 3, 2015 at 12:00 Noon at the Beaver Stake Center (1350 E 200 N, Beaver, UT). Viewings will be held Monday, March 2nd from 6-8:00 pm at Southern Utah Mortuary (195 N 200 W, Beaver, UT) and Tuesday, March 3rd from 10-11:30 am at the church. Interment will be in the Mountain View Cemetery under the direction of Southern Utah Mortuary.

Parents: Richard Rees Thomas (1885-1960), Sarah Esther Barton Thomas (1892-1933). Spouse: Leon Swindlehurst (1929-2004). Burial: Mountain View Cemetery. Beaver, Beaver County, Utah, USA

Gentlemen,

Comms from out Hon. Sec.

I have just been informed that George (Ginger) Henry Swindlehurst who enlisted in the Coldstream Guards in 1943 and was a former L/Sgt has passed away on Saturday 25th April 2009.

He was born 21st March 1925 and served in the Second World War, he was shot in the spine and after treatment in Belgium he then went Stoke Manderville being a paraplegic.

He formed and was captain of the wheelchair basketball team which represented Great Britain at the Commonwealth Games in New Zealand.

He lived at Tytherington near Macclesfield and is being cremated at Tytherington crematorium on Tuesday 6th May 2009.

Rest In Peace fine Coldstreamer

Second to None.

A PARALYMPIAN left disabled by a sniper on the final day of the Second World War has died suddenly after a massive stroke.

Paraplegic wheelchair basketballer George Swindlehurst MBE, 84, of Marlborough Drive, Tytherington has been hailed as Macclesfield's "greatest ever sportsman" by a former Great Britain team-mate.

Known affectionately as 'Ginger' he defied his disability to win medals at three Paralympic Games and two Commonwealth Wheelchair Games during the 1960s and 70s.

He died on April 25, at Macclesfield Hospital, leaving wife of 60 years Winifred.

Winifred, 83, was a nurse at Merseyside Hospital when she met George as a patient after he was shot in the back while serving as a land sergeant in Arnhem, Holland, during the war.

She said: "I'm sorry to let him go now, but he'd been poorly for some time. We had a nice life together. He had a great career in sport and I never wanted to stop him playing."

George, a clock repairer for more than 40 years at Macclesfield-based Jones Jewellers, then Mike Broster's on Sunderland Street, was named Paraplegic Sportsman of the Year in 1966 and was later presented with a Gold Medal Triad in 2000 – a lifetime achievement award and the highest accolade in wheelchair basketball.

Ex-Great Britain team mate, Philip Craven MBE, started playing with Ginger in 1967.

He said: "We put the Commonwealth wins down to Ginger. He was a hard task master, had all the skills and was undoubtedly one of the greatest wheelchair basketball players ever. I'm a little bit emotional at the moment but I learnt so much from him. I think he could well have been Macclesfield's greatest ever sportsman."

While wheelchair basketball took George to destinations such as Rome, Tokyo, Tel Aviv and Heidelberg, he remained devoted to his home town.

Paddy Moran, 77, of Lyme Park Green, Macclesfield, said: "I played with Ginger on a local – for Lyme Green Settlement – national and international level for 25 years.

"He was a natural leader, always prepared to help and a first-class clock repairer. I will miss him very much," said Paddy.

Neighbour and friend Warren Eastwood, 86, said: "Ginger never grumbled about anything which was amazing considering what happened to him in the final days of the war. He was a life-long Manchester City fan and my table tennis playing partner for 15 years at Macclesfield Rugby Club."

The lives and times of the Swinglehurst Family.

A collation of data by Arthur Neville Swinglehurst. Born 1918.

Introduction.

The first records of the family are to be found in the Forest of Bowland – more especially in the vicinity of Chipping and the neighbouring Leagram Hall and Dear Park.

We are fortunate that in this ancient forest, time stood still for so many centuries, and that records are so freely available from the regular Forest Courts. The Court Leet, the Court Baron, Halmote, Woodmote and Swainmote, which were a mixture of the old Government of the English and the feudal system of the Normans.

In addition Ecclesiastical Courts were held at Whalley Abbey, records were kept at Clitheroe Castle, in the Parish Churches and in the ancient houses of Stonyhurst and Browsholme.

All these records have been studied at length – in first place by John William Swinglehurst (My Great Uncle) who was born in 1861 and died in 1930 at Fair Oak, Barrowford, and later by my Uncle Frank Swinglehurst born in 1896 and his sister, my Aunt Marion. What little information I have been able to add has been gleaned from records kept at Lancaster Library and at Preston Records Office.

So with a pile of notes gathered since the turn of the 20th Century and well before, it is high time they were put together in some sort of order so that they may be enjoyed by the rest of the family. If this is not done then I fear that much of the information will be lost, perhaps forever.

Memories of Park Hill – Arthur Neville Swinglehurst's own story - Born 1918.

I was born at Brook Bank, Barrowford, across the stream from Park Hill, within earshot of the tumbling waters of the cauld and overlooking the great meadow.

My first memories were of walks with my mother in this meadow that was by now the new Park. I can distinctly remember workmen enlarging the dam and building a retaining wall and walkway round its edge. I remember the open waterway from the dam to the old mill, already in ruins with the remains of the water wheel still visible. Men were busy filling in the waterway and constructing a path over it.

Then there was the Smithy. His had been part of the Park Hill Estate and in the early 1920's this was always busy. Many is the time I have stood by the open door watching horses being shod amid clouds of acrid smoke and gazed in wonderment at the myriad's of sparks created in the forge when the giant hand bellows were being worked.

When I was five – I know I was five, because my new born sister, Jean, was in her pram – I remember a tennis court had been constructed near the old mill and my mother was hit in the face by a miss-hit ball.

There was a display at my Grandma Swinglehurst's. A Rapier over the mantelpiece, and a dull metal breastplate, and in the hall a small mounted coat of arms. These naturally excited the curiosity of a small boy of eight or so, and I was told that they were from Park Hill and that they belonged to Uncle Frank. I don't remember seeing the crossbow, but have since learned that my Uncle sold this in London for an undisclosed sum, and he was surprised to receive a letter from the dealer saying how pleased he was with it, especially the figuring in the silver inlay. Up till then, I had no idea there was any silver attached to it. It had lain in the loft at Park Hill for so long, it was just black metal.

Alas, the breastplate went the same way in later years for Uncle Frank was always in the need of a copper or two.

Now all that remains are four or five coats of arms scattered around the family, the rapier and the 1756 Indenture on Parchment, which I have only this year seen for the first time.

I must have been eight when I danced round the maypole on the Park. Every year there was a Grand May Day procession through the village led by a band with decorated floats drawn by decorated horses. (There was little motor transport at the time) The highlight of the Parade was of course the May Queen, and the large Maypole hoisted high on a cart with its coloured ribbons draping over class 3 from the Junior School.

Once on the Park, the Maypole was off-loaded and set in a low wooden stage and class 3 accompanied by suitable music from the band wove intricate coloured patterns as they danced round holding ribbons.

My partner was my first girl friend – Ruth Nutter – a petty little girl who lived at Park Hill – in the old original part of the building. Her father had some job on the council, for the whole complex was now council property. I remember in the newer part – which was also old, for that matter, lived the Armisteads. He was the Town Clerk. There was a son, Geoff and a daughter Marie (I think). Both were older than I was, and I thought how lucky they were to be living in such a grand place.

My brother, Francis Henry, and I seem to have spent most of our playing hours on the recreation ground and the park, or in the wood that separated them. We dammed up the stream a hundred times, we made new channels, and we caught fish by jam-jar full, and occasionally tickled the odd trout.

We perfected our cricket strokes on the uneven surfaces of the recreation ground and came home mud-stained from playing football. On summer days we came home from school via the stepping stones to the "rec" and joined the other boys in a competition to see who could pee the furthest into the river.

One day – it must have been Saturday, for we had just donned a complete set of clean clothes and were dressed in our best, we were beset by old Baxter, the Park Keeper who lived in the old cottage belonging to Park Hill. It was high summer and the lake had become clogged with a green blanket weed. "Would we like to earn a penny?" said old Mr Baxter as he stood besides his boat. We never let a chance like this go, so we spent the whole Saturday afternoon in the boat, whilst the old man, an ex naval person with a wooden leg, rowed expertly round the lake. We raked in boatload after boatload of this obnoxious weed and dumped it on his compost heap. The job done, we made for home proudly clutching our pennies. That was the day our mother left home in tears.

All must have turned out all right in the end. I don't know what was said, but later someone called at the chemist shop from the council and asked if there was anything that would prevent this weed growing. This was in the days before proprietary brands were specifically packed for the purpose, and some concoction was dispensed which looked remarkably like permanganate of potash. The lake finished up looking purple!

I must have been 10 when I got into trouble at Barrowford School, and after a caning in the morning, Eric Williams and I decided we were not going to school anymore. We spent the afternoon in a secret cave we had in the woods between the Park and the recreation ground. We had a lovely view of the old mill and the park and the village down below, but it came on to rain and we felt so miserable and damp. We decided it was not such a good idea after all, and could hardly wait until the church clock struck four, when we decided to wend our way home with the other school children.

Next day we were assembled in front of the whole school and given six of the best for playing truant. The gentleman who administered the punishment was Mr Fred Bannister MA. BSc. The Headmaster – a direct descendant of the Bannisters of Park Hill, who had published a history of the Bannister family and their Park Hill connections.

One of the big days in our social calendar, was the Barrowford Show, held on the park for one day every August. In great excitement we watched the workmen erecting giant marquees, and then early on Saturday morning came the cattle, the horses, the sheep, rabbits, pigeons and of course the flowers and preserves. By mid morning the public were being admitted and this always brought a lot of visitors. Having a shop over the showground it was good for business, and we made the most of it.

I was probably 12 or more when my brother and I each had an elastic powered model earoplane for Christmas. At the first opportunity we were in the park for a launching ceremony. They flew quite well after a few adjustments, and we learned that if a plane was nose heavy, we moved the wings forward a little to lift the nose up. We learned to trim the tail plane and the angle of the wings. It must have been here that the seeds were sown which were to affect the rest of our lives. My brother joined the Royal Air Force when he was sixteen and started a career in Aeronautical Engineering which spanned 49 years with the R.A.F. and British Aerospace. I managed a mere 6½ years with the R.A.F.

I left the village in 1938 and my brother had left in 1936 and our visits since then have been infrequent. We view with nostalgia our boyhood days spent in Barrowford.

On one of my visits I remember my son Andrew, age 4 catching his first fish. This was opposite the George and Dragon next to the Smithy and by Park Hill. He put his net into the water and a stickleback – a descendant of one of the sticklebacks I knew, swam straight in!

Arthur & Dorothy married 1950 Nelson.

From Mary Hargreaves whose Grandfather was a Swindlehurst: "I wrote to the gentleman, Mr ARTHUR NEVILLE SWINGLEHURST, and so began our friendship.

I first met him in February 1989, when he let me have a photocopy of the book he was writing about the family and its history. My dream of reaching real history had come true. Although there are still many questions unanswered, I now have paths to follow. John William Swinglehurst (1861 - 1941) [Married Martha Deurden 1887 Burnley. Brother Josiah married Marion Crossley 1891 Ashton], great-uncle of Neville, was a historian and did much of the research used in this book. He did it in the early part of this century when archives were not as accessible as they are today. When John William died, he left all his researches to his nephew Frank Swinglehurst (1896 - 1986). Frank was fired by the same enthusiasm for the past. He spent much of his retirement amongst archives and riding around the Forest of Bowland and its surrounding areas on his bicycle, checking his uncles information and adding more. For many years Neville had lived in Nottingham where he worked in a bank. On his retiement he, with his wife Dorothy, decided they would return to his northern roots. They settled on the coast at Silverdale, in Lancashire. From there he visited his now elderly uncle Frank in Morecombe Neville's death in January 1991

This book is dedicated to the memory of Arthur Neville Swinglehurst and to his widow Dorothy."

EXTRAS:

From article on Film Producer Sam Peckinpah in the Rocky Mountains magazine March 1982.

THERE ARE NINE OF US AT THE TABLE in the restaurant: three local Montana couples--- the Swindlehursts the Huis the Devines--- the Huis' six-year-old son, and Peckinpah and me. Peckinpah kisses Mrs. Swindlehurst across the table. He hugs Mrs. Divine. He compliments Mrs. Hui. After dinner he wipes his mouth with his napkin and says to me, "I have three questions I want to ask you. First, why do you want to interview me?" "So why do you want to interview me?" he says.

I smile. I think it is a joke. Then I notice the skin pulling around his hairline. It is pulling and turning white across his cheekbones.

Mrs. Swindlehurst gives me a cautioning look.

"Why should I give you an interview?" he says. "All you journalists are plagiarists.

After that they shake hands, and Peckinpah gets in the back seat of the Swindlehursts' Wagoneer. McGuane leans his head through the open door..... "Well, I like a focus. I'd like a focus before we reach the Swindlehursts' or the interview's off." Carolyn Swindlehurst is at the wheel and slows down. Peckinpah has the bottle between his knees and his hand on the door.....

[Note. Mr Swindlehurst was a Solicitor for the film star ...
